CITIZENS' TICKET SUCCESSFUL AT

We learn from the Camden Journal of the 7th inst., that the Citizens' ticket for municipal officers of that town was elected, on the Monday previous, by a majority of fourteen. Considerable interest was taken in this election, and much activity prevailed among the friends of the two tickets. The radicals resolved to contest the election and gave notice accordingly. The protest hearts ceased to beat for the glorious was considered in Council, witnesses dead. ADVERTISING.

The practicability of advertising, as an important and indispensable element of business prosperity, seems to be but comparatively little understood. We frequently hear of business men who a finality. Certain kinds of business, prosecuted entirely by private solicitation, or by the securing of large contracts, may not require, in fact may ly. shun, publicity; but all who depend upon a fair field and open competition for public favor, must notify the public of their claims and do so continually. With the merchant, advertising is the most profitable of all his incidental business expenditures.

CHRISTIAN NEIGHBOR. This excellent christian family paper appeared, on Thursday last, enlarged to the extent of seven colomos, and with a new and chaste heading, the whole presenting a model of typographical neatness. Thelengthened and increased ment tomptations, ever since he has been among us. It is said of him that he resisted indignantly all the corrupting influences at Columbia and we know that he has exerted himself zealously incressed favor and support.

On the 4th inst, a joint resolution was offered in the House of Representatives, proposing a sixteenth amendmeut of the Constitution. It was referred to the judiciary committee .-The resolution is as follows:

SEC. 1. The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of sex. SEC. 2. The Congress shall have ower to enforce this article by appropriate legislation. THE PRESS RESOLUTIONS. The Chester Reporter-among the ablest and most prudent and consistent yields assent to the Resolutions recently passed by the Press Conference in the following way : "There can be no question now that all citizens of the United States, irrespective "of race, color, or previous con dition" have the "legal right" of suffrage ago we did not endorse the statement made in the first resolution-not be cause we believed that any practica issue was involved in denying it-but simply because we could not do so withwho are to live after them. A noble out "going back" on all the principles we had held and taught in the campaign of 1868. The very gist of that coutes was, that the reconstruction measures were unconstitutional—that Congress had no legal power to confer suffrage upon the negroes-and that therefore, though they would vote, still the vote would be illegal and unconstitutional The result of that election was simply a declaration on the part of the people o the United States that the governments foisted by Congress and the army upon the Southern States should be perpetu ated. The question of their legality and constitutionality was not, and could not be, determined by that election. The ballot box is not the place to settle great questions of constitutional law. Holding the views we then did, and nothing having transpired since that time to alter our opinions as to the correctness of those views, we could not sooner than in our present issue, subscribe to the doctrine that all citizens of the State irrespective of color have the legal right to suffrage. Now we recognize it as the law of the land. Al classes, all colors, stand alike before account of race or color are dead issues, past and gone forever.

HOW THE TIDE RUNS.

At the meeting of the Press Conferrence we thought and so expressed our self, that it was one of the most important meetings for the weal of our State, that ever met at the capitol. We believe it will prove so. We see clusters of its good fruit every day. We have recently spoken to several influential colored Republicans, and explained to them the objects of that meeting and the resolutions by it adopted, and they expressed, without hesitancy, their readiness and willingness to co operate with any party to crush down the present corruption of our State Government, and place it firmly upon a basis of honesty and justice. Every intelligent man now has a solemn duty to perform, and it is this: To talk to and explain the object of these resolutions to those who cannot read and are not likely to undernot for sule, desire to see the ship of who will sell his vote is worse than a command and enjoy public confidence. Let us do our duty with all our might.

The guarantee of their rights has now become a part of the Constitution. To that Constitution we have ever been willing to defer, to the laws made in pursuance of it, we yield, and ever have yielded, a ready obedience.

The reconstruction acts of Congress, with the civil and political rights they confer on the colored race, we regard as faith. HANDSOME RESIDENCES. A large number of very superior residences have been erected within the last twelve or eighteen months on Four-teenth street, in the immediate vicinity of and on Museachusetts avenue. Among them that of Colonel M. Tompson, on Massachusotts avenue, adjoining General Schenck's very imposing man-sion, on the corner of Fourteenth street, is particularly attractive. The Colonel built it expressly for himself, and the internal arrangements for comfort and convenience perhaps are not excelled in the city. The house sets back from the Avenue, and has a small and exquisitely ornamented yard in front, enclosed ornamented yard in front, enclosed by iron rallings and containing a wonderful variety of rare flowers, evergreens and ted, without regard to valuation, characshrubbery, arranged with consummate ter, or condition of products or earnings. taste, which presents the appearance of Approved March 1, 1870.

His law library is a perfect feast to the eyes of an ambi ious and aspiring young law student This building has some twenty five rooms, which are being fitted up for proessional gentlemen.

We clip the paragraphs printed above from the Washington (D. C.) Evening Visitor. Colonel M. THOMPSON, to whom allusion is made—(a brother of Col. FEMALE EDUCATION.

BY W BEAUMONT CLARKSON

RECTION 2. It is said, that a great obstacle to the development of genius in females, consists in the circumscription of the sphere of action allotted them.

This I deny. The sphere of action alloted to females is wide and comprehensive, affording incentives to action, and scope for the noblest deeds-deeds such as heaven born angels might love the performance of-deeds such as not only win the smiles of mankind, but the smiling approbation of Heaven itself, and an eternal crown of glory bereafter.

"Tis strange, that those noble women, who have filled with the greatest ability and honor, their sacred positions in the home circle, have never complained of their sphere being too small. Indeed. the scope for action is so extensive, that 'tis to be feared, it is seldom filled, and the sacred trust committed to their charge, not too often meriting the approbation of Heaven.

Far be it from us to detract from female intellect. We would be compelled to shut from our memory, many of the names of Carolina's gifted daughters. It is our purpose to prove that we entertain lofty views of the capacities of wostand their true meaning and intent. men, and their intellect, ss wonderful Aside from political parties, all who are in its influence upon the character of

It is a trite remark, but full of truth, pirate-but by honest men who can that truly great men are ever the sons of remarkable women. The impress of their characters upon that of their children is easily accounted for, but we will reserve this interesting point for our next section."

CAPTAIN T. C. DUNN, of Little River, South Carolina, is now spoken of as a candidate to represent this Congressional District, and honor the seat that wicked Ben has disgraced. Captain Dunn is primarily from Massachusetts, in politics a Republican, and by birth and education, a gentleman. Immedi-In the last contest in this State the ately after the war he invested all his capital in Horry and is now the largest cotton planter in that county. He has identified himself with our State, and been decided, upon a solemn appeal, by with us he has determined to rise or fall. Up to this time he has taken no part in politics, and now yields only to the earnest solicitations of some of the prominent citizens of Horry, who endorses his respectability and honesty. Men and not party is the watchword in the coming elections. We learn that F. J. Moses, Jr., will be the nominee of the Radical party. Wicked Ben will be left out in the cold "to run on his own hook."-Marion Star.

Extraordinary Discovery. All those indebted to me will please come forward promptly and pony up the stamps. I have waited patiently, until I have been reduced to straitened circumstances. And, as keeping my customers in ignorance of the facts, as they crist, would be unwise, therefore I will enlighten them on the subject, and give them a chance of doing their duty to God and myself and those immediately connected with me.

Respectfully Your Humble Servant.

A. J. MELDAU.
